

3 STEPS to SILVER SCREEN GODDESS

Spring/Summer 2008 calls for out & out old-school Hollywood glamour. Think Audrey & Princess Grace, with a dash of Marilyn and you've got this season's must-have look

If unlike our Hollywood starlets you don't have a team of stylists, here are our 3 'It' items that will have you looking every bit the movie star, whatever the occasion.

Over-Sized Sunnies

Just like Spring/ Summer '07, the over-sized sunnie is an integral part of achieving this season's screen goddess look and can instantly turn even casual jeans and a T-Shirt into a show-stopping ensemble. So whatever you're wearing and whatever the weather, don a pair of these to transform yourself into the next Jackie 'O' or Liz Taylor. Dust off those lovelies from last year, or else choose any of the gorgeous specimens from the Mango range.

Black Patent leather Bag

Whether it is an over-sized shoulder bag, or a dinky clutch, the black patent leather bag is a must for this season. If you're feeling thrifty then I recommend investing in the large-sized shoulder Pitonisa Handbag bag from Mango at €44.90 as it will create the desired look for all ensembles ranging from Smart to Casual. However, if you're thinking of splashing out and want to add some variation to the look, then in addition I would recommend this white patent clutch with black outline from Jaime Mascaró for parties, functions or just when you feel like dressing-up for a night on the town.

Peep-toe Sandal

Another key item for this season's look is the Peep-toe sandal. The Peep-toe will set-off any outfit from smart to casual, and will look just as glamorous next to the local shopkeeper as they would next to Carey Grant. To get your hands on the perfect pair this season, look no further than our very own Jaime Mascaró. Jaime Mascaró is to Menorca what Manolo Blainik is to NYC, and is as much a 'sole-mate' to Hollywood celebs such as Claudia Schiffer and Lindsay Lohan, as Manolo is to Carrie Bradshaw.

I recommend this stunning black patent pair, as they will add a touch of golden age sophistication to any outfit. From tailored shorts, to jeans, to pencil skirts and minis.

If you want to add a modern twist to the theme, Jaime Mascaró has various gorgeous examples of the peep-toe. From luxurious red suede with bow detail to vibrant neon yellow and green, just click your Mascaros together three times and you will find yourself transported to the wonderful land of instant Hollywood glamour. When it comes to show stopping style and sophistication, there really is no place like home.

While you're in Menorca why not take advantage of the fact that Jaime Mascaró have their head office and factory shop in Ferreries plus several shops around the island. You will also find a Mango store in the heart of Mahon.
